

ENGINE HUNTS TRIO WHO BOMBARD MAN IN RAILROAD TOWER

Angered at Getting Only 75
Cents, Bandits Keep Up
Fusillade for Hour.

A Pennsylvania locomotive was used in a hunt for three bandits who were bombarding a railroad tower in the Meadows three miles from Kearny, N. J. Seven policemen with rifles had strategic positions on the engine and tender as the speedy three-mile trip was made over the rails. Then for an hour the locomotive darted here and there, on tracks around the Meadows, stopping whenever a suspicious shadow was seen. The robbers were not caught.

Three men with revolvers had shot most all the panes out of the windows of the railroad tower, when Chief of Police James Connelley of the Pennsylvania Railroad forces, Jersey City, telephoned Lieut. George Holt, who was on all-night duty at the Kearny Police Headquarters. He told Lieut. Holt about the bombardment, said that the towerman was held captive, and that steps should be taken to rescue him. Chief Connelley then equipped the locomotive.

THREE NEW YORKERS HELD IN RUM RAID

Baltimore Agents Seize $100,000
Worth of Whiskey in Suburban Garage.

BALTIMORE, Jan. 10.—Federal prohibition agents raided a garage near the northern suburbs Saturday night, seized whiskey valued at $100,000 and arrested eight men, among them three from New York.

The New Yorkers accused of engineering the scheme are William E. Bedell, twenty-four, of No. 2187 Broadway; Harry Crawford, twenty-three, of No. 104 West 168th Street, and John Taglia of No. 21 Mott Street. The New York men were trailed to a hotel and arrested. In the room they occupied $7,500 was found under a pillow. This money was claimed by Bedell. The police who accompanied the agents said that one man was intercepted when attempting to destroy several permits. An immediate hearing was arranged and all were released on bail. Bedell's being fixed at $25,000 and Crawford's $5,000.

Mrs. William E. Bedell, of No. 2187 Broadway, when told to-day of her husband's arrest became indignant and denied he had any connection whatever with the liquor traffic. She stated she and her husband arrived two days ago in New York from Tampa, Fla., where they had been engaged in the real estate business. They had also been in the show business. She said Bedell went to Baltimore last night and was expected home to-night. At No. 104 West 168th Street no one by the name of Crawford was known.

Noted London Doctor Dead.
LONDON, Jan. 10.—Dr. Robert Jared Ellis Howard, a noted authority in the medical world, died here Saturday. He was educated at McGill University, at Montreal, and at the London Hospital, and was a Fellow of the Royal Society of Medicine.

His widow, who survives with two sons and two daughters, is a daughter of Baron Strathcona and Mount Royal.
